Battle For Volga City Is Admitted Near Final Phase

By the Associated Press

BY HENRY C. CASSIDY

Moscow, Sept. 15.—(P)—Backs to the Volga, the defenders of Stalingrad stood to their guns today under the heaviest of pattern bombing and still held hills looking down upon the heart of the city against the redoubled assault of Nazi troops and tanks.

"It is impossible to retreat any farther," a Russian correspondent reported from the war's bloodiest battlefield.

(Stalingrad's main railroad station has fallen into German hands, the Transocean News Agency declared today, quoting dispatches received by competent military quarters.)

(The high command communiqué, which made no mention of the capture of the station, said merely that "the victorious advance on Stalingrad is gaining further ground.")

(The location of the main railroad station in Stalingrad is not shown on available maps, but the main rail line runs through the heart of the city from the northeast to the southwest.)

(A military spokesman, reporting heavy street fighting inside the Volga city's limits, declared the battle as approaching "its final phase.")

But even while the bomb-splattered city fought for its life, the Red army kept up its own dogged punching at the German defensive lines on the Moscow front to the north, and reported the annihilation of about 4,000 Germans and the capture of a fortified town in a three-day fight.

Russian planes and Russian tanks still played their part in the fight to save Stalingrad—badly outnumbered though they were.

And the Russians reported that although their lines sagged again and again under terrific onslaught, the German gains now were being held to a costly 300 to 400 yards for a whole day's fighting.

Whole blocks of the city of Stalin smoldered in bomb-strawed ruins. But the smoke of devastation as workers toiled within sound of firing from the battlement to keep the troops supplied.

German bombers struck heavily at Volga river crossing at the rear of Stalingrad's defenders, seeking to cut them off from reinforcements and supplies.

The mid-day communiqué told of the repulse of attacks both west and southwest of the industrial center and the details of scattered engagements indicated more than 2,000 Germans were slain in that critical area yesterday.

Red army men fighting west of Stalingrad slew 700 Germans in a series of defensive engagements and destroyed two tanks while (Turn to Page Eleven)

Damaging Blow Struck Upon Tobruk by Sea-Borne Forces

By the Associated Press

The London admiralty announced that sea-borne British forces struck a damaging blow in a raid Sunday night against Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's key supply base at Tobruk, North Africa, 75 miles west of the Egyptian frontier.

"Our force landed in the face of strong opposition and inflicted casualties and damage on the enemy before retiring," the admiralty said.

"The withdrawal was not carried out without losses, which, in view of the strength of the defenses, were to be expected."

WAR BULLETINS

Washington, Sept. 15.—(P)—Rear Admiral John H. Towers, chief of the navy's bureau of aeronautics, has been appointed to the newly created post of "commander air force, Pacific fleet," Secretary Knox announced today, in a move giving new recognition to the navy's air arm.

Rio de Janeiro, Sept. 15.—(P)—The Spanish passenger ship Cabo Hornos arrived today with 116 survivors of three Brazilian ships sunk by enemy action in the Caribbean. They were the 2,347-ton Piave, the 4,772-ton Barbacena and the 4,942-ton Tamandare.

London, Sept. 15.—(P)—An adequate supply of suitable shallow-draft ships to carry men and vast quantities of equipment is the biggest problem in placing a United States army on the continent of Europe and keeping it there, Col. Frank S. Ross of El Paso, Texas, chief of the army service of supply transportation branch, declared today.

Rome (From Italian Broadcasts) Sept. 15.—(P)—The Rome radio broadcast an official announcement today that an American newspaperman—his name not given—was among the prisoners taken in the British commando raid on Tobruk Sunday night.

General MacArthur's Headquarters, Australia, Sept. 15.—(P)—The Japanese killed their own badly wounded so that no prisoners were taken in the battle for Milne Bay, where Allied forces crushed a Japanese landing last month, a senior Allied officer reported today.

New York, Sept. 15.—(P)—The Italian radio broadcast an announcement today that an American newspaperman was taken prisoner in the British raid on Tobruk Sunday night and there is a strong possibility that it was Larry Allen, Associated Press correspondent and 1941 Pulitzer prize winner.

RECORD NEW REVENUE BILL IS COMPLETED

Dips Into Pockets of More Than Third of Nation's Citizens For Money to Help Fight War

WILL HIT 23,000,000

BY JACK BELL

Washington, Sept. 15.—(P)—A record-shattering revenue bill dipping directly into the pockets of more than a third of the nation's citizens for money to help fight the war went to the technical draftsmen today with mixed approval and criticism from members of the senate finance committee.

About 23,000,000 persons who previously paid no federal income taxes would join 20,000,000 old taxpayers and the corporations to provide treasury collections estimated unofficially at more than $25,500,000,000 annually under terms of the measure as it was approved by the committee last night.

The victory tax levy, superimposed on the regular income tax, would collect 5 per cent of earnings above $624 a year, the assessment being taken out of the pay checks of wage earners.

At the end of the year, credits of 25 per cent of the tax would be available for single persons and 40 per cent for married persons. These could be taken up in debt and insurance deductions or made in the form of post war rebates by the treasury.

This levy stayed in the bill despite a last-minute effort by Senator Byrd (D-Va.) to force across a sales tax, linked with increases in come rates and lowering of exemptions. Byrd's motion lost, 8 to 11, and a companion motion to (Turn to Page Eleven)

Fight Against Jap Carriers Is Succeeding

BY CLARK LEE

Pearl Harbor, Sept. 14.—(P)—The United States is nearing the halfway mark in its fight to destroy the Japanese navy's aircraft carrier strength, which is the most important immediate objective of the war in the Pacific.

It can now be reported that a small 7,500-ton Japanese carrier first identified as the Ryuzo possibly was sunk in the big battle between carriers off the Solomon Islands Aug. 24.

Our pilots got four bomb hits and one torpedo hit on this ship. Patrol plane pilots several hours after the battle saw the carrier dead in the water and listing.

Our pilots who were on the spot also believe two Japanese destroyers and one submarine were damaged in the battle, in which our own losses were minor.

In addition two Japanese cruisers, one battleship and one transport were severely damaged. One of the cruisers and the transport later were seen abandoned.

All these facts were compiled on the spot by an Associated Press reporter from personal observation and from all the available official information and the reports of pilots who participated in the attacks.

The truth is that we won an important victory.

Quarters of British War Relief Bombed

Boston, Sept. 15.—(P)—An explosion, which a police expert said he believed was caused by a bomb, rocked the quarters of the British War Relief Society shortly before noon today.

Sergeant Edward Seibolt, Boston police ballistics expert, said the women fleeing to the street, apparently had been caused by a time bomb. It apparently caused little damage to the building.

Seibolt said the bomb seemingly had been planted outside the building. Several windows in the basement in the rear of the structure were shattered by the blast which could be heard across the city.

World Series to Start Wednesday, Sept. 30

Chicago, Sept. 15.—(P)—The World's Series will open in either St. Louis or Brooklyn on Wednesday, Sept. 30, three days after the close of the regular season.

This was decided today at a meeting presided over by Kenesaw Mountain Landis, commissioner of baseball.

If the fiercely battling St. Louis Cardinals win the National League championship, the first two games will be played in St. Louis Sept. 30 and Oct. 1, with Oct. 2 left open for travel. The next three games will be played in the Yankee Stadium Oct. 3, 4 and 5, with Oct. 6 left open for travel to St. Louis for the remaining games, if necessary, Oct. 7 and 8.

Rear Admiral Declares Balance of Striking Power Now With America

MUST KEEP PUSHING

Washington, Sept. 15.—(P)—Rear Admiral W. H. Blandy, just back from a 26,000-mile inspection trip, declared today that United States forces presently hold the balance of striking power in the western Pacific.

Blandy, navy ordnance chief who talked with reporters at Secretary Knox's press conference, declared he was not "bold enough" to make any forecasts of the future Pacific war.

Legion Considering Admitting New Vets

Kansas City, Sept. 14.—(P)—The American Legion is about to decide whether to invite into its circle the boy that picked up where it left off 25 years ago.

The question of admitting veterans of the present war to membership promises to set off plenty of fireworks at the Legion's three day national convention, opening Saturday.

Those in favor argue there'll be a close tie between the two groups since 100,000 of the 1,125,000 Legionnaires already are back fighting not to mention 300,000 sons and grandsons of World War I veterans.

Regardless of how the delegates vote, the charter under which the Legion was created would have to be amended for admission of the new veterans. Under the charter, only those who served in the armed forces between April 6, 1917, and Nov. 11, 1918, and were honorably discharged may belong.

Keen Interest In Junk Drive Shown By Granges In County

Dems Forming Fall Platform

Harrisburg, Sept. 15.—(P)—Promising a brief, "specific and definite" platform for the November election campaign, Pennsylvania Democratic leaders today finished a policy-forming session.

Following a meeting of the platform committee yesterday, Chairman Leo A. Acherman said of a tax reduction plank: "We will definitely tell the people what we are going to do; James made promises he never complied with."

The Democratic state committee will meet here tomorrow to adopt the platform and to launch the party's campaign in central Pennsylvania, Auditor General F. Clair Ross, Democratic gubernatorial nominee, then will start a state-wide county-by-county tour.

The chairman said the platform would not exceed five pages in comparison with some 15 last year. He added: "Where the Republicans were vague, we will be specific; where they evaded, we approached."

HENDERSON SEES DANGER OF INFLATION

Price Administrator Tells Banking Committee Stabilization of Prices and Wages Necessary

PROGRAM JEOPARDIZED

Washington, Sept. 15.—(P)—Price Administrator Leon Henderson told the senate banking committee today that stabilization of farm prices and wages and salaries was immediately necessary to avert the "disaster" of inflation, "as deadly as a bomb and as treacherous as the Japanese."

"The danger of such extreme inflationary increases in the cost of living as to jeopardize our entire war program" is at hand, Henderson declared in a statement.

He appeared to urge quick action in a resolution by Chairman Wagner (D-N.Y.) and Senator Brown (D-Mich.) which would direct President Roosevelt to stabilize wages, salaries and prices at the general level of last August 15.

Citing steep increases in the prices of certain uncontrolled food products during recent months, Henderson said the government's efforts to control the cost of living have been inadequate.

"We have come to the point," he said, "where the uncontrolled items are forcing the whole cost of living upward."

Henderson said effective control of the cost of living as requested by the president required that farm prices "be kept at or about the present levels."

In the house, Chairman Steagall (D-Ala.) arranged for hearings to start tomorrow before the banking committee on a bill which not (Turn to Page Eleven)

May Contest Decision On Murphy Case

Harrisburg, Sept. 15.—(P)—Attorney General Carl B. Shelly said today he would appeal immediately to the state supreme court from a decision by the Dauphin county court upholding the nomination of John W. Murphy as the Democratic candidate for congress from Lackawanna county.

Harrisburg, Sept. 15.—(P)—The state elections bureau worked today on the certification of the November election ballot as the probability arose of an appeal from a court decision upholding the nomination of John W. Murphy as Democratic candidate for congress from Lackawanna county.

The closest contest was won by Robert Hale, outspoken Republican critic of the administration's domestic policies, in the first congressional district. He defeated former Democratic Governor Louis J. Brann, a supporter of President Roosevelt, by approximately four to three.

Representative Margaret C. Smith, Republican, was reelected by a margin of more than two to one over her Democratic opponent, Bradford C. Redonnet. The Republican incumbent in the third congressional district, Frank Fellows, was returned to office without a contest.

OPA Business Experts Quit

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—(P)—Two business specialists in the state Office of Price Administration submitted their resignations today in protest against a reorganization plan which will transfer much of the ope's power to the New York City regional office.

"We don't believe in working by remote control," said H. Richard Fox and Charles Woods, who commented that they joined the division at a "considerable sacrifice in salary." Both formerly were on the staff of a Philadelphia department store.

The resignations were accepted. Meanwhile, Raymond F. Ashenfelter, state OPA director and Pittsburgh store executive, said there was no truth in a widely circulated report that he also planned to resign.

Fifty-five OPA employees, 22 of them business specialists, were dismissed last week in the start of the reorganization and an OPA spokesman said dismissal notices for about 50 more were being prepared.

Political Grand Slam Scored By G. O. P. In Maine Election

With Relatively Few Ballots Cast, Voters Return Gov. Sewell to Office

FEW CLOSE CONTESTS

Primary day balloting of the two major parties in five states, a Democratic state nominating convention in a sixth and a runoff in another virtually completes today the selection of contestants for the November general elections.

A couple of jumps ahead of the rest of the nation, Maine observed election day yesterday with Republicans scoring a political grand slam in all major offices by capturing the governorship, three seats in the house of representatives and one in the senate.

With relatively few ballots cast, the voters returned Governor Sumner Sewall and Senator Wallace H. White, Jr., to office by majorities of better than two to one over Democratic opponents. Sewall defeated George W. Kline, Jr., and White won from Fulton J. Redman, Jr.

The closest contest was won by Robert Hale, outspoken Republican critic of the administration's domestic policies, in the first congressional district. He defeated former Democratic Governor Louis J. Brann, a supporter of President Roosevelt, by approximately four to three.

Representative Margaret C. Smith, Republican, was reelected by a margin of more than two to one over her Democratic opponent, Bradford C. Redonnet. The Republican incumbent in the third congressional district, Frank Fellows, was returned to office without a contest.

SCHOOL STRIKE OVER FOOTBALL IS ENDED

Wilkes-Barre, Sept. 15.—(P)—A three-day pupils' strike at West Pittston high school won its objective last night when the school board voted to restore football to the sports program.

Lack of transportation and inability to hire a coach were cited by the board when it banned the game.

Pupils picketed the school Thursday and it remained closed.

Added impetus was given Warren County's Salvage Drive today when it was announced that members of Chief Complanter Post No. 135, American Legion, meeting last night voted to give the Salvage Committee a large World War cannon on the south side as well as the iron fence around the Legion property on Pennsylvania avenue.

The cannon is a relic of World War I and was obtained by the Legion over 12 years ago and erected at a cost of several hundred dollars. The iron fence around the property is an ornate, cast iron affair which was put in

FIRST AERIAL ATTACK MADE ON U. S. SOIL

Metal Fragments Bearing Jap Markings Found in Crater Left by Shell Dropped in Forest

U-BOAT LATER SIGHTED

San Francisco, Sept. 15.—(P)—A foot-deep crater, apparently caused by an incendiary bomb, gave evidence today of what may have been the first aerial assault upon United States home soil, an apparent attempt to set fire to an isolated forest on the southern Oregon coast.

The army's Western Defense Command, in a communiqué, disclosed that an unidentified, small monoplane of a type that might have been carried on a submarine was seen coming inland just before dawn Sept. 9, and was heard roaring out to sea about half an hour later.

Some time after the plane was seen circling the Mount Emily area nine miles northeast of Brookings, Ore., a fire was observed, and forestry patrols who extinguished the blaze found a crater and metal fragments which the army said bore "markings of Japanese ideographs which may have been part of a code indicating the arsenal where the bomb was manufactured."

Several hours after the appearance and disappearance of the seaplane was reported, an army patrol plane sighted and bombed a submarine 20 miles off the Oregon coast with "unobserved results."

The army communiqué noted: "It is possible a plane of this type might have been carried on a submarine."

Lieut. R. J. Runyon, area supervisor of the air raid warning system, said the plane was spotted on the filter central control board within seconds of its appearance over the coast, and observed: "It was an excellent test, and the system proved fully effective."

Forestry patrols reported the incendiary bomb hit a crater about three feet in diameter and a foot deep.

Howard "Razzy" Gardner, forest service lookout, observed the plane and saw the fire break out from his post on Mount Emily, nine miles from Brookings, Ore.

Looking into the darkness at 6 a. m. Sept. 9 when he heard the sound of a single motor, Gardner saw a circling plane overhead—saw it so closely he identified it as a small seaplane.

Gardner sounded the alarm on the forest telephone, gathered some equipment and plunged through the forest by a shortcut to battle the flames single handed.

He succeeded so well he had them under control by the time the forest fire suppression crew arrived—a four, and a half hour battle through brush and over rugged terrain from their station.

So isolated is the spot that Ed Marshall, federal forester, was (Turn to Page Three)

Bond Sale Drives and Scrap Round-up Discussed at Rotary

At the weekly meeting of the Rotary Club on Monday, a double feature program held the undivided attention of the men who were present. B. S. Knabenshue, chairman of the Warren County Salvage Committee, and R. W. Mackay, chairman of the War Savings Committee of Warren and Forest counties, were the two speakers.

The theme of Chairman Knabenshue's talk was tolerance toward those involved in the salvage effort generally and, more specifically, those agencies upon whose shoulders falls the actual collection of scrap. Attention was called to the fact that there is a certain amount of physical handling involved which can be performed only by experts. The scrap must be separated into its various grades and classes and loaded for shipment in accordance with government specification and forwarded in carload lots. This fact explains why a scrap yard that is really doing business usually contains a considerable tonnage of useable material which is being accumulated in order to fulfill government shipping requirements. The same is true of automobile graveyards. To function properly an automobile graveyard must have a constant flow of cars in and parts out. A graveyard that is entirely cleaned up is out of business.

Mr. Knabenshue explained in detail the Scrap Round-up which is now under way throughout the county and which will culminate in the big Harvest Picnic on Friday, September 25th, in Crescent Park. It was explained that any individual, whether he be a farmer, a Grange member, or neither, may contribute scrap during this Round-up, either directly to the scrap pile which is to be established at the foot of Market street, or through his favorite Grange.

Contribution of scrap in any quantity will entitle the donor to numbered tickets to the picnic.

Mr. Knabenshue brought out that this is not the time for the farmer and the lease holder nor the city dweller to consider the profit angle in disposing of his scrap. All kinds of scrap, particularly metals, are desperately needed in the war effort, and there should be no question in anyone's mind as to whether the accumulation of scrap is profitable or not. Even so, looking at the matter from a dollars and cents standpoint, it was brought out that if we are successful in accumulating 500 tons of scrap during this Round-up, it will have a value of approximately $7500. There is to be no profit to anyone in the handling of this scrap. Some of Warren's leading junk dealers have offered their services free of charge for the sorting of the scrap. Further, these same dealers have contributed $100 toward the prize fund for the Harvest Picnic. This is but one indication of the cooperative spirit displayed by the junk dealers throughout the Salvage Drive.

Chairman Mackay gave a most interesting report of what has been accomplished to date in Warren County in the sale of War Savings Bonds. In the pledge for Victory Campaign last April 800 air-raid wardens and others were participants with the result that in Warren County 722 pledges totaling $608,000. Results since then have grown considerably in volume. He spoke of the fine participation by school pupils in the purchase of War Savings Stamps. Many of his hearers were undoubtedly surprised to learn that there are 52 concerns, with 5586 employees, who have 92% of the latter participating in regular payroll savings deductions. Warren County averaged during the months of May, June, July, and August 111% of its assigned quota, considerably ahead of the national average.

Mr. Mackay gave a brief sketch of War Bond programs in previous wars beginning with the Revolutionary War. He closed by emphasizing the seriousness of war and told in a most effective way the story of Torpedo Squadron 8 in the battle of Midway with only 11 survivors out of 30 men in the Squadron. He urged those who have not already done so to read the story in the August 31st issue of Life magazine.

Presentation of the Navy E to the O'Connor Machine Company, of Sheffield will take place Tuesday, September 29. Announcement was made some time ago of the award to the plant for its splendid work in topping expected production and for the high degree of efficiency developed by the employees as well as the management.

The work of arranging the program is now under way and it is expected that it will be completed soon. At the time of the award it is expected that numbers of prominent Naval Officers will be in attendance and invitations have been extended to U. S. Senators James Davis and Joseph Guffey.

It is also hoped to have several most interesting features on the program of which further announcement will be made as the plans mature.

Plans Laid For For Busy Year

This morning the lid was lifted on the season's activities at the Y. M. C. A. when by a coincidence two new leaders opened this work in this city. William L. Parmelee and Mervyn H. Ruosa, both formerly of Lancaster and now with the local association began their work. Meetings were held with groups and classes were formed.

A meeting of the Board was held Monday evening and announcement of their future activities incidental to the opening of the season's work are expected soon. With Ralph H. Wagner, general secretary, the entire staff is composed of newly chosen men and the trio are anxious that the season's work get under way and to that end are endeavoring to lay out program that will be valuable and enjoyable to the members of the Association.

A battery of infra-red lamps is used at the Kansas plant of the Boeing Airplane Company to dry painted insignia on wings and fuselages in one-quarter the time previously required.

Vegetables, Nuts, Etc., Are Used for Needed Accessories

The slim, sleek look of fall fashions offers a perfect foil for the many accessories designers have ingeniously originated for the seasons ahead. With priorities taking their toll of materials previously thought accessory musts, the old adage "necessity is the mother of invention" was never better exemplified than during this war year. Enter an era of new, different accessories, created out of a definite need, and which also set a new trend in functionally smart trimmings.

Tying in with the metals conservation trend are the many new ways of closing jackets and dresses without benefit of slide fasteners. Ribbons, cords and fabric strips tied in bows or lacing in contrasting colors, are a popular solution to the jacket and blouse closing; with buttons most frequently used down the sides or shoulders of dresses. Because of the dual part they play, buttons have taken to a more decorative trend than in previous years. Wood, plastic, ceramic and sterling silver, as well as crystal and tortoise shell, in decoratively utilitarian roles, give a new look to dresses and packets.

Vegetables, ivory, nuts, seeds, macaroni pearls, reprocessed wool and many other fabrics heretofore foreign to costume jewelry are being made up effectively to adorn this season's clothes. Some of the plastics are luminous to cause talk during blackouts!

Belts, shoes, gloves and bags fall into both dressy and functional design. Gloves which pull on with one tug and come to the elbow are destined for a gay night life. These may be trimmed with brightly colored bits of embroidery, or be stark and simple to set off a wide, striking bracelet. The one button "shortie" for suit and tailored costume wear is most popular, in many colors, sometimes with contrasting stitching for emphasis.

Bags Are Spacious
Handbags, always a vital part of any outfit come into their own: spacious and roomy, with handles for convenient carrying, to leave both hands free for packages. They favor wood, plastic and button closings. For volunteer war workers, the shoulder strap bag is a handy innovation that may be adjusted to any length.

A particularly smart effect is achieved in the matching trio belt, bag and shoes, in reptile or leather. Belts, also of fabric, appear in a series of new priority-free treatments to lend versatility to dresses and skirts.

Probably the most important single "accessory" as an outcome of "L-85" is the short jacket, sold separately in many variations, to sparkle a-top simple dresses after dark. Either sequin trimmed or gleaming with jet or beads this is a favorite evening fashion, equally right with street-length dresses and floor skimming gowns.

The quilted fabrics are very much in favor and are being used for warmth and color in short jackets as well as for the short box coat, which bright sequins may transform into an evening wrap.

Dyed to Match
Distinctly new are blouses that exactly match suits for the purpose of giving a "costume" appearance, now that jacket and dress must be bought separately, while jacket and skirt may be bought at a unit price.

Local Men At Dinner Rally In Oil City

State Senator Leroy E. Chapman and County Chairman Jess Smith are in Oil City today where they are attending a dinner and rally at which General Edward Martin and other Republican candidates will speak. The party of candidates will arrive in Polk about 5:30 and a reception will be held there and later at Franklin a stop will be made before arriving at Oil City where Webb D. Allen, Venango county chairman, has arranged a dinner and rally. Nearly 500 are expected at the dinner. General Martin and party will spend the night in Oil City and will resume their tour Wednesday making a stop at Tionesta at 10 a. m.

Blandy Finds U. S. Strength is Increasing

cific situation but that "for the time being, most certainly," the United States held the balance of military and naval striking power there over Japan.
Blandy had been asked "are we in position to hold the Japs against anything they might throw?"
"Yes," he replied, "I think we are. But we can't do it by merely holding. We've got to keep pushing. The best defense is a strong offense. We can't remain static."
Discussing his finding on ordnance equipment, Blandy said that "with a few minor exceptions" the material his bureau is furnishing the fighting navy was being adequately delivered and "performing well."

He mentioned the performances of anti-aircraft guns on ships—the five-inch dual purpose gun which Knox and Blandy described as the best heavy naval anti-aircraft gun in the world; the standard 20-MM light weapon; and a 40-MM Bofors which Blandy said was now in good production for new ships, with some surplus for arming older vessels.

At least 25 merchant vessels have been saved from being torpedoed by axis submarines, and approximately 250 survivors from sunken ships have been located by Civil Air Patrol forces.

Stewardess Millie Andrews of United Air Lines, chosen "Miss Wings for the Army," prepares to leave Seattle to recruit aviation cadets and ground-force specialists for Uncle Sam.

American Legion to Return Old Gun to Nazis in Bullets

are requested to be on hand for the ceremony, in uniform if possible.

In presenting the cannon and fence members of the post feel they are making a patriotic gesture at the right time. Scores of Legions posts and other institutions throughout the country are doing the same thing at a time when the need for all scrap is vital. And, members of the post are confident that a better cannon can be obtained at the end of the present conflict and are determined that one will. It is planned to place a neat wooden sign on the site from where the cannon will be removed; noting that the cannon which rested there had been used for scrap to help win the present conflict. As for the fence, members of Chief Cornplanter Post felt that they could cheerfully sacrifice it to the same good cause. It is planned to replace the fence, next spring, with a neat, ornamental hedge which will serve the purpose, in this emergency, just as well.

May Contest Decision On Murphy Case

en Lackawanna Voters who challenged the nomination, said the Dauphin county court's ruling probably would be applied to the state supreme court. A definite announcement will be made, Shelley said, after he confers with the Lackawanna group.

Murphy was nominated by the Democratic executive committee after the death of the late Congressman Patrick J. Boland, party whip in the house. Although he died the day before the primary, Boland received the largest number of votes.

His primary opponent, Patrick McLane, sought unsuccessfully to have himself declared the Democratic nominee but the supreme court held there was "no nomination."

The elections bureau has filled 16 vacancies to complete the general election ticket. Most of them stem from the withdrawal of candidates to enter the armed services. They included two congressional places and 14 seats in the state house of representatives.

Before the war Japanese worked extensively through the Chetco river country, buying logs and rafting them downriver.

War production schedules have been set high but our whole American industrial tradition proves that they are not impossibly high, says the Department of Commerce.

Shoes Require Quick Change

American women will become "quick change artists" this fall to meet the demands of their double-duty lives. Busier than ever before on the job in war-service, they will work through the day in strictly simple, tailored suits or uniforms. Then a quick change to the completely feminine for dressup!

In shoes and accessories, these two fashion trends are most apparent. Classic, military-styled welts on active low heels give sturdy service during the day. And have the reverse side of the picture are the flattering new step-ins with "millinery" touches of bows and frills, much silk braid and stitching. The beloved pump silhouette remains the headline fashion for fall.

Some of the finest examples of the service-welt styles are "Suitability Shoes" by Walk-Over. They are featured in shine-em-up calf ties and buckle-straps in sleek tan, black or Kona red. These all-around utility shoes are smart with suits and authentically styled to unite with uniforms: especially popular for their lightweight, limber comfort and support.

And, after the purchase, saving our shoes through wise care now become a patriotic duty.

Despite its high and mountainous interior, Costa Rica has more than a million acres under cultivation, more than six million acres of cattle-grazing land.

Sugar and cocoa-bean products normally constitute more than 50 percent of the raw materials used by the confectionery industry, according to the Department of Commerce.

ANXIOUS RELATIVES

The parents, wives, brothers and sisters of Americans who were in the Philippines have been besieging every possible source for information whether they still are alive and, if so, where they are and what is their condition.

To these questions there is no answer, because the Japanese have not provided those lists of prisoners-of-war which humane peoples compile and transmit, through the Red Cross, as speedily and accurately as war conditions will permit.

This negligence or deliberate restraint emphasizes one difference between Japanese Occidentals. We wage war to accomplish a purpose, good or bad, and regret the human suffering that becomes inevitable, and try to limit that suffering as much as possible. The Japanese wage a war of extermination. To them human suffering is not worthy of consideration, unless from it they obtain sadistic pleasure.

APOLOGY FOR POLITICS

A New Jersey newspaper apologized editorially for inflicting local politics upon its readers in time of war, but pointed out that as the county forum the paper felt that it had a duty to democracy to keep its readers informed.

That is correct, sad as it seems. If there was a real issue of good government involved, then the citizens needed information in order that they might keep democracy functioning and keep it worth saving. If, as the newspaper believed, the battle was solely for political patronage and pelf, then it was the editor's duty to let his readers know the caliber of men those politicians were.

GOT ALONG WITHOUT 'EM!

(Harry Nelly in his Henry County Review, Holgate, O.)

Why all this panic about foodstuffs? Our forefathers existed without—

- Sugar until the 13th century.
- Coal fires until the 14th century.
- Buttered bread till the 15th.
- Potatoes or tobacco till the 16th.
- Coffee, tea or soap until the 17th.
- Puddings till the 18th.
- Gas, matches or electricity till the 19th.
- Canned goods till the 20th.—Copped from an exchange. Mebbe yes, mebbe no.—H. N.

We are pleased to present today the annual fall style edition which has been made possible through the cooperation of local merchants and other establishments interested in this particular line of business. Readers will find much of value and interest in closely perusing the advertisements and news items regarding the modes that will be most popular during the coming months.

It is hoped that every person in the community will make note of the warning issued yesterday by the local Defense Council against depositing wet paper boxes, tin cans and garbage in those red, white and blue Corner Cupboards, intended for deposit of usable scrap materials. It is unpatriotic, to say the least, for persons with misguided sense of humor, to throw refuse in the boxes other than that for which they are intended.

In deciding to donate to the Salvage Committee the fence around the home, and the captured German cannon in Crescent Park, the American Legion sets an excellent example for other organizations and individuals to follow in aiding the local effort to collect 500 tons of junk between now and September 26th. Who's next?

Plans for fall and winter activities are developing rapidly in both the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. In the latter, it is interesting to note that major emphasis is being placed at the present time on a program stressing religion, democracy and a world community.

Today's dispatches indicate that next year's income tax is going to leave us all with plenty of change—and that's about all.

With coffee on the shortage list now is the time to use the old bean!

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

(First Of Two Series)
By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Without fear of contradiction from the Army, Navy or war industries, it may be said flatly that the Civil Air Patrol is jangling up the most remarkable record of any of the civilian defense groups.

There now are nearly 59,000 volunteers in the CAP; probably close to 15,000 planes; perhaps 30,000 pilots and almost an equal number of mechanics, radio engineers, and sundry office and air base ground workers. Their story can't be half told until this war is over. Wartime censorship has the CAP coastal patrol wrapped in clouds. A dozen other phases of CAP activity are behind the veil of military secrecy—but the stories that can be written are exciting enough.

CAP pilots are more completely "on the record" than those in the military air forces. Their cards on file here in Washington are masterpieces of individual case histories. There is hardly a thing in their professional, amateur, public and private lives that is overlooked. Their records go into one of those incomprehensible sorting machines.

The other day, the Army called Maj. Earle L. Johnson, CAP national commander. "We need," said the general on the line, "30 pilots between 35 and 45 who can fly twin-motored planes, have 2,000 hours in the air, and are willing to serve somewhere in the Orient."

Major Johnson passed the word along. The keys of the magic sorting machine were punched and out came more than 400 CAP pilots who filled the bill. The Major called the Army back. The general said simply: "Pick 30; enlist them as captains and wire me for orders and transportation."

That request of the CAP was all tailwind and a yard wide. Take the one, for example, that came through recently for four pilots who had more than 2,000 hours in the air, could fly twin motor planes and amphibians, and could speak Spanish fluently. The sorting machine did its work and up came 18. The four pilots are now serving "somewhere south of the Rio Grande."

MAJOR JOHNSON likes to chuckle over the request he got from one Army air unit. The officer in charge explained: "Regulations require that we have a chaplain. We are constantly on the move. Do you think you could find us a flying parson?"

The CAP gave him his choice of 14 "sky pilots"—fourteen ministers who could play tag-along in their own planes from Australia to Iceland and never miss a prayer meeting.

(Note: There is one big indication of just how much the Army thinks of the CAP. It's the only civilian organization on the books that is allowed to wear THE uniform of the U. S. Army. It's the only organization anywhere that is allowed to wear the wing and propeller emblem of the Army air corps. The CAP emblems are in silver—the air corps in gold. No other units outside the armed services can wear the "U.S." which appears on the shoulders of CAP men. CAP members wear red shoulder loops—almost the only distinguishing feature to the average civilian eye, but one which lends color and a snap to the uniform in the opinion of the men who wear them.)

before they are appearing in "The Pirate" which is sure to be a noisy package of cheer and good acting. But before Broadway gets "The Pirate" it will have its world premiere at Madison, Wis. Lunt's warm feeling for the university and the people of Madison accounts for this western trek. Once before he premiered one of his shows there, and he always plays Madison on his tours.

A NOTE on Lunt and Fontanne at rehearsals: They have a rule that by the end of the second week of rehearsals they always put away their scripts and go on from there on their own. They feel a fortnight is long enough to master any role. However, some of Lunt's scenes are being rewritten, and Lunt is as nervous as a cat. He is always nervous until the script is hurled into an empty corner.

Those who have missed Francis Robinson, who represented Katharine Cornell after the late beloved Ray Henderson fell to his death in the Aegean sea, will find him in the navy, doing recruiting work in New Orleans.

I saw Madge Evans with her husband, Sgt. Sidney Kingsley at the screen. Kingsley, who wrote "Men in White" and "Dead End," has found time between his army activities to complete a new play based on the life of Thomas Jefferson. This is soon to be produced in cooperation with the Playwrights Company.

From where I sit

by Joe Marsh

WILL FROST dropped over last evening and we had a glass of beer on the back porch. I could see Will was bustin' to say something...

"Well," he finally remarks, holding up his glass to the light of the settin' sun, "I paid my income tax today—third installment."

There was a note of pride in Will's voice that some folks might have found amusing—if they didn't know Will...

Wasn't amusing to me though. I happen to know this is the first year Will's filed an income tax return, and I suspect the payment wasn't very big... probably in the general neighborhood of $3.26. But I know how it made him feel...

Made him feel good... because he was doing his part as an American citizen... holding up his end.

Made him feel proud... to mail that money direct to Uncle Sam—for things that's needed to win this war with.

That's the way Will would feel about being able to pay income taxes... kind of citizen he is.

And speakin' of taxes... I read the other day that during the nine years since beer came back, beer taxes have brought in more than two and a half billion dollars to the government.

Then it went on to say that the beer industry provides more than a million dollars a day in taxes. Some of that's federal, some's state, and some's local. But any way you describe it, it's a lot of money.

Right here in Pennsylvania, for instance, the taxes from beer last year were enough to pay for one hundred and one 4-engine bombers, 358 fighter airplanes, or 532 medium tanks.

(And it wasn't so long ago a lot of that money was going into pockets of bootleggers and gangsters.)

"There," I thought to myself when I saw Will holding his glass up to the light, "there are two Americans that pay their way... Will Frost and beer."

Respectfully.

Of Course You Feel As Young as Ever

BY PAUL BRAUNSCHWEIGER of the Mullen Drug Co.

It's fine if you feel as young as ever, but the important thing is to maintain that sense of well being, to avoid strain and undue fatigue, to take the years lightly and calmly.

Forty an dover brings to all of us certain warnings: a few crow'sfeet, threads of silver in the hair, necessity for increased dental care. The organs of the body function at a more leisurely tempo. One may be as efficient as ever, but it's well to take one's time about doing things.

Your physician will tell you how to make this adjustment serenely and easily. Now it is more important than ever to avoid hurry and worry and to listen to the doctor.

The best is none too good for your health—choose your drug-gist with this in mind.

Qualities Of Rayon Brought Out by War

We don't have to be reminded that in the past few years rayon has become important in practically everything we wear and everything with which we dress our homes. Rayon is found in all types of fabrics from bridal veils to carpets from dresses to diapers in shoes and now in stockings too.

However, war is putting a new emphasis on rayon and bringing out its he-man qualities of strength and sturdiness. Certain high strength rayons, in fact, have been requisitioned for military use. They are going into tire cords, for warfare bombers and for jeeps into self-sealing gasoline tanks and they're ideal for fabrics for aviators and parachute troop uniforms.
So you see rayon really can "take it."

Rayon's qualities of wearing strength have a real value for us too. Nowadays when we buy clothes we must ask more than "Is it smart, is it attractive?" We need must consider, "Will it wear, will it hold up well, will it clean or wash well?" We have to buy wisely so that factories and man-power will not be called upon to replace unsound things that wear out quickly.

Pretesting Proof

Many rayon fabrics are pretest-ed for assured serviceability. Laboratory tests have been made on these fabrics to PROVE that they will hold up and give grand service. Tested fabrics take "guessing" out of buying.

What is more, there is a world of new rayon and wool fabrics for us that are warm and designed for winter wear. They are kind to our pocketbooks too. Gabardines flannels, crests, smart tweed effects in plaids and checks and smart new colors — are all being made in spun rayon and wool. If you are a person who can't wear wool usually, you should be able to wear these new fabrics and still have the warmth you want.

There are lots of smart "dress-up" rayon fabrics too designed for fashions to wear when with "the man in uniform." Rayon faille and bengaline and moire for smart little formal street length afternoon suits, blouses and jerseys and soft and lustrous satins.

Probably the singiest most important silhouette is the peg-top skirt, a tapering silhouette that is not limited to any age group for wearability. The short "jacket" simulated by a pert peplum bows its way in, predominately in combinations of crepe with velvet or faille.

The silhouette often is easy fitting with the wrap-over, or chemise, dress solving the priority problem of metal slide fasteners.
Buttons too come to the aid of fashion favorites and may run straight up and down, diagonally or down the side, and are as often as not smartly decorative to serve a dual purpose: that of an efficient dress closing and as an effective means of dress trimming.

FARM NEWS

Harrisburg, Sept. 14. (P)—
Daily milk production of Pennsylvania dairy herds last month totaled 18.4 pounds, which the department of agriculture reports is about equal to last August's all-time high mark.

The department added that "excellent condition of pastures" which are the best in 25 years—was one of the main reasons for the heavy flow of milk.

Grain feeding for cattle, however,
was heavy, despite the good pasture conditions. The department explained that cost of dairy ration is 33 cents more per hundred-weight than a year ago, an increase of 17 per cent, compared to an increase in the price of milk received by farmers of 19 per cent.

The department estimates that prices of most feeds probably will average higher in 1942-1943 than in 1941-1942, although costs of wheat mill-feed may continue about the same, while prices of oil-seed meals may drop.

Wheat has a feeding value for dairy cattle equal to corn, barley or hominy and can be used as a substitute for any of these feeds.
However, wheat cannot be used in such heavy proportions per ton as corn, barley or hominy because it forms a rather sticky, pasty mass when used too heavily.

Timothy seed production this year in Pennsylvania is estimated as double the 1941 yield, the federal-state crop reporting service said.

A total of 7,600 acres were harvested this year, compared to 4,500 for the preceding year. The indicated average yield for 1942 was 2.95 bushels as compared to 2.65 bushels per acre for 1941.

John H. Light, secretary of agriculture, explained that about half of the crop would be sold to dealers, 32 per cent to farmers and the remaining yield would remain on farms where it was grown.

The giant white clover ladino is being used successfully in the northeastern part of the state to provide protein feed for livestock and poultry.

State College forage specialists say ladino makes excellent grazing and is good for hay and silage.

A wheat variety demonstration by John Richner, of Luthersburg, in cooperation with the Clearfield County Agricultural Extension Association, turned up these results for the grain varieties: Nittany (formerly called Pennsylvania 44), 28.4 bushels per acre; thorne, 26.4
bushels; purkoff, 25 bushels; nured, 25 bushels; and Yorkwin, 27 bushels.

In a similar demonstration on the farm of Melvin Owens, Clearfield, thorne yielded 46.4 bushels to the acre, while Nittany yielded 36.6 bushels.

J. B. R. Dickey, crop extension specialist of Pennsylvania State College, commented on Owens' demonstrating by saying that
"where yields are as high as this,
Nittany would not, in my opinion, be a good wheat for a man to grow. On land capable of growing 40 bushels, I would say thorne is unquestionably one of the best varieties to grow."

Agriculture experts have these suggestions to keep egg storage rooms at proper and constant temperatures: Use shades over windows, plant shrubbery outside the walls, ventilate only at night and use a house fan to keep air circulating.

Trim and Slim is Fashion Trend

Slim silhouettes distinguish these smart new two-piece dresses introduced at the opening fall shows of New York's famous designers. A striking feature of the dress from J. Thorpe, at left, is the side closing of blouse and skirt, with its scalloped design repeated in cuffs and hat. A Bergdorf-Goodman dress, at right, has a fitted velvet jacket set off by decorative wool insets and soft wool string ties.

For the average young couple entering marriage today, the chances of surviving to their golden wedding are about twice what they were for the average couple 50 years ago.

When a girl of 21 marries a man five years older, the chances are one in five that they will survive together to celebrate their golden wedding.

Color! and lots of it! That's the big news in war-time coat fashions. Red, China Blue, bright green, tones of purple . . . tweeds with bright flecks of color . . . velveteens in rich jewel tones . . . these are the smart coat colors for Fall.

The new coat silhouette is sleek and trim, but with soft body lines that are becoming to every figure. Within the definite limitations set down by the Government as a matter of saving fabric, designers have developed an amazing array of attractive styles to suit everyone's fancy. There are dressy coats in smooth surfaced woolens, or hollow cut velveteen, softly tailored in princess styling with bloused bodice, side drape or the new modified dirdl with front fullness. Fur trimmings give a rich effect in revers, novelty cuffs, tuxedo fronts, plastrons. Instead of fur, velvet trim is sometimes used for contrast in texture. Colors are black, taupe, greyed blue or brown.

Very much in evidence is the favorite pin-point woolen coat with fur accents in neat little collars of mink worked in loops, bows, knots, narrow bindings of Persian lamb or Beaver.

With us still is the beloved reefer, this year with fur trim. Wide notched fur collars that reach to the waistline are very dashing, warm and young looking . . . winter navy or black with mink or beaver, grey with grey Persian, beige with otter. The new reefers double their usefulness as their deep armholes and easy waistlines slip easily over suits.

Then there is the straight tailored box coat with fur trimming, that goes to business, football games or on air raid duty with equal propriety; in fleece or camel's hair, in natural tan, medium blue, rosy red, vivid or deep green. Royal blue with Persian lamb trim is very new and smart. Other flat furs, such as beaver and mink are also used.

As three-piece suits and coats with dresses are out for the duration, designers are offering separate coats to match suits and dresses. You can easily assemble your own outfit as the garments are sold in one department of the store.

As a decided change from tailored, long lines of past years, the new suits are dressier, more varied and interesting in their L-55 regulated lengths than they have been for many seasons. Undoubtedly the War Production Board fabric conservation regulations, making jackets 25" or shorter, inspired designers with a wide range of styling possibilities in dressmaker suits.

These soft suits with easy body lines have a two-piece costume look. Some have elaborate fur collars that are removable, but many more are untrimmed. They are designed to be worn on their own

New York Yankees Capture Another American Loop Flag

Drub Tribe, 8-3, To Clinch Title; Cards Increase Their Lead

The Baseball Standings

BY GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Yankee team that clinched another American League flag by beating Cleveland yesterday undoubtedly is not the best that has worn the Bronx pinstripes since Manager Joe McCarthy began winning championships, and it might not be as good even as the one which pulverized the Dodgers in last year's World Series.

But, as Marse Joe points out, it is "plenty good enough." Its great pitching and greater defense will make it a pronounced favorite to win the fall title again, whether its opponent in the series is Brooklyn or the St. Louis Cardinals. From the looks of things today it probably will be the Cards.

In some respects, the Yankees who won their sixth pennant in seven years through yesterday's 8-3 victory over the Indians look definitely less formidable than they did a year ago. Joe DiMaggio and Charley Keller have not hit as they did in '41, and Tommy Henrich, third member of the championship outfield, is lost to the coast guard.

But the team has a brilliant new pitching star in Hank Borowy, and Ernie Bonham is better than he was last year. Bill Dickey has made a nice comeback with the willow, and the infield looks even a little slicker, if possible.

The Yanks were not the only club to do some clinching, incidentally. The St. Louis Browns sewed up third place in the American League when they put over an unearned run in the 16th inning to nose out the Athletics, 5-4. This is the highest the Browns have finished since 1928, when they likewise wound up third, and may win for Luke Sewell the title and manager of the year. Experts who predicted last spring that the Browns might finish in the first division were considered slightly queer.

In the one other American League game, Sid Hudson relief-pitched and batted Washington to an 8-6 win over Detroit.

The Cards, by pushing across four runs on as many hits and three errors in the ninth, picked up a vital 6-3 victory over the Phils and stretched their advantage over the idle Dodgers to a game and a half. The Phils, after scrapping nobly for eight innings, simply came apart in the final chukker.

Here We Go Again, Boys!

Getting to be a familiar scene is this of cheering New York Yankees, here celebrating their sixth pennant victory in the past seven years. The club clinched the 1942 American League flag with an 8 to 3 win over the Indians at Cleveland. Mascot Marshall Kinney, of Barborton, O., gets a big thrill out of it.

BANK SHOTS

BY FLOYD PASSINGER, Sports Editor

"T" stands for touchdowns, so Lowell Drake, Erie Academy coach, says in reference to the "T" formation. . . And with every nook and village eleven in the country gradually shifting to the system, it makes sports fans feel that perhaps the reason for Stanford's success, ditto Notre Dame, and the fact that the Chicago Pro Bears are nigh invincible can be attributed to exceptional brainwork in making the clever formation work correctly. . . The Bears don't have supermen in their lineup, despite what the remaining National Pro League teams will testify. . . Incidentally, the fashion in which the Green Bay Packers made the Army All-Stars retreat last Sunday was something of a spectacle. . . They rationed points through the first half, both teams having a single touchdown and the Army also a point edge, but the final two periods produced 44 points, 30 of them claimed by the Packers. . . For the second time in the relief fund series of contests, turning a kickoff for a score. . . But the effort was in vain this last time. . . Green Bay, by the by, is the only team experts can see having a true chance of giving Chicago's champion Bears a run for the honors this autumn. . . "Feelers" will be sent out Friday and Saturday this weekend by colleges that will be turning up for another hot and heavy grid campaign, and the highlight tilt of the week will bring together Frankie Sinkwich and his Georgia mates against mighty Kentucky. . . The Colonels may surprise, but most experts are looking for an opening game win for Georgia, if Sinkwich is up to his usual form.

Recently we looked back down the trail which we have trod during the summer months in the sports realm, so let's take a look at the lying ahead—through the remainder of autumn and into winter. . . Communities this year are going to find new sports interests in winter which too few ever realized existed before, and it will be one of the war's few blessings. . . For instance, when folks can't stray far from home, unless it's on a hike, they'll have to take to hiking, which wouldn't hurt the average American citizen today at all. . . They'll look at icy ponds come winter, and snow-covered slopes, then into a hardware store at shoe ice-skates, if there's any metal for these by the time, or at the snow pontoons which so many outdoor sportsfolk enjoy, and will progress further by purchasing some of this equipment. . . What's more, while the sports will be localized greatly, with neighborhood bouts more frequent, it should provide some fun for children and adults alike. . . But few can count on an active inter-city sport program, scholastically or otherwise, which brings to mind the Northern Tier of the District Nine basketball league. . . It looks as though the loop will operate again at this writing, but perhaps without all of its members. . . For instance, Emporium has been out of its class the past few years, and tire rationing as an added obstacle, the Tubers may pass on this winter's deal. . . Johnsonburg, it is hoped will be back, as well as Ridgway, but the war situation when the cage season rolls around, may have a lot to do with their decisions. . . Here's food for serious thought. . .

Await Choice Of Dates For World Series

Chicago, Sept. 15.—(P)—Announcement of World Series dates was awaited today as K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, called a meeting of the National and American League presidents and officials of the clubs still in the running for the two league championships.

Representatives of the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals, now contending for the National League crown, and the New York Yankees, who clinched the American League pennant yesterday, were called to the 11 a. m. (CWT) session with Landis, and Presidents Ford Frick of the National and Will Harridge of the American loop.

The series' first two games will be in the National League winner's park with play transferring to Yankee Stadium for the third, fourth and seventh contests, if required, would be held in the National League's park. The usual starting date for the series is the third day after the regular schedule, which would be Sept. 30, this year.

CARDS MOUND CORPS READY FOR TROUBLE

BY JUDSON BAILEY

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—(P)—Next to the game and a half lead that shows in the standings, the St. Louis Cardinals' biggest asset in the National League pennant fight is the resilience of their pitchers.

Big Mort Cooper, for instance, was ready to go to the mound today against the Phils with just three days rest since he smothered the Brooklyn Dodgers for his 20th victory. No one had any doubt either, that he would make this No. 21 and push the Cardinals up to a two game margin over the Dodgers, who were idle again.

Cooper is considered the nearest approach to a sure thing in the major leagues and after his chore today is certain to start at least two and perhaps three more times. He'll go in one of the games against the Cubs at Chicago this weekend and will be on the hill when the Cincinnati

North Sea.

Today is the second anniversary of the battle of Britain's climax and Allied air chiefs commemorated the event with the promise that their air armadas would help destroy and defeat the Axis enemies.

The Berlin radio gave the first word of the new assault on Germany without naming the exact target.

The Berlin announcement said "fires were started and some damage was caused to buildings, mainly in the residential district."

Four of the attacking bombers were reported shot down.

Last night's raid followed by 24 hours a double blow by the RAF and the Russian air force at Germany and her Axis partners, Rumania and Bulgaria.

Several hundred British bombers scoured Bremen for the 100th time with tons of bombs aimed at U-boat yards, the Focke-Wulf airplane factory, railways and industries. The Russians said their bombers started fires in Bucharest and the Rumanian oil center of Ploesti and Axis reports said Budapest, Berlin and Koensberg, East Prussia, were other targets of the Red raiders.

The attack came after Air Chief Marshal Sir Charles Portal, commander in chief of the RAF, promised that British, Russian and American air armadas would "overwhelm our enemies and bring about their final destruction."

Every Girl Is Working Girl And Her Clothes Must Be Fit

By LOIS F. ULLMAN
Director, Business Girls News Bureau

Back to work they go . . . by the millions! Business girl . . . War plant worker . . . Volunteer worker! Charm magazine research from Offices, to War Production Plants, to Volunteer War Activities finds every girl is a "working girl" these days; planning her back-to-work clothes with the practicality of an engineer, budgeting like an expert!

United they stand, these American working girls . . . united in fashion as in spirit of cooperation and "all-out" determination to do their part in the war effort. Charm Magazine editors, who know working girls better than their own bosses know them, because they study them, live with them, listen to their smallest peevish and their greatest ambitions, find a faint heart among them. Every last girl is "on the job!"

Some kind of a job, anything from filing away war orders to boss mechanic in a production plant. Suddenly every girl seems to KNOW she is a vital part of America . . . hers another pair of hands Uncle Sam can call upon to pitch in and pull for Victory.

"Conservation and Efficiency" have taken an important new place in her thinking . . . her living . . . her shopping, and stores are fast learning that this vast array of young workers know what they want and know how to get it.

She Pays the Price

When the business girls of America, for instance, decided it was time Fashion served their needs more specifically, they acted with the intelligence and foresight their business experience had given them. They went straight to the Editors of their own magazine, Charm, and stated their case. They wanted the kind of clothes their daily living required . . . they wanted them at the prices they could afford to pay, and these girls proved willing and eager to pitch in and do their share to bring about fashions they desired. So 10 of the Charm advisory Committees of Business Girls in big cities from coast to coast undertook a Fashion Project . . . each committee to do research among hundreds of business girls and bring forth one "Perfect Item" for the Business Girls' Perfect Wardrobe to be ready for Fall, 1942. So in collaboration with the manufacturers, the Business Girls' Perfect Wardrobe was produced, and it includes the first essential items every girl needs for her Fall Wardrobe.

There is the perfect fur coat as well as a Perfect Cloth Coat. There's a Perfect Suit, and the Perfect Date Dress, besides the Perfect Office Dress. And to complete the wardrobe, there are Perfect Hat, Bag, Shoes, Sweater, Skirt, and underneath it all, the Perfect Girdle.

To mention a few of the practical features these efficient business girls have incorporated in their own fashions, there is the broad brimmed hat, casual enough for office wear, but made dressy enough for dates by the addition of a snap-on veil. And it comes in Minor brim size for pint-sized girls . . . Major size for average girls . . . and costs about $4.00. Then the envelope handbag which is priced at $4.00 is designed to be carried under-arm, but has a wrist-loop so it can suspend from the wrist when she's patriotically "carrying small packages." It is roomy inside, has a zipper closing, can be had in non-slip leather or fabric.

Perfect Wardrobe

This first "Business Girls' Perfect Wardrobe" is regarded as a startling achievement by the fashion world . . . but Charm reasons "who but Business Girls, really know what Business Girls want? And this is just the beginning of business girls having their say and their way about fashions they buy."

When you consider that the War Man Power Commission estimates there will be 2,500,000 women in the production end of essential war work by the end of 1942, and a total of 4,000,000 are required by the end of 1943, you begin to realize what a universal and lasting effect the new "War Workers Fashions" will have on America. SAFETY, COMFORT and EFFICIENCY are the rules by which these fashions are designed and cut, and pretty color and neat design have been proven to give the workers a lift.

Naturally, slacks, coveralls and overalls (in many versions) lead in work fashions, and always the feature of color fastness and washability is incorporated in good work clothes. The safety features of pockets, belts, buttons, etc., are often laid down by the plant and ingenious designers manage to meet the most rigid specifications and still develop fashions that are at once feminine and practical. The Labor Department stresses

Faculty At Russell High Is Complete

Russell, Sept. 14—The Russell high school opened Tuesday morning with the school faculty and enrollment as follows: High school—Principal, R. C. Huntley of Springboro, will teach mathematics, health and guidance (boys class); Harriett Engle, teacher of English, Latin, German and guidance (girls class); Miss Elizabeth Ferry of Chester, Pa., teacher of social studies, health and English; Lawrence Briggs will teach mathematics in the senior and sophomore classes, science and physical education. Mrs. Smith of Warren will teach music and English. Freshman class, 18; sophomore class, 20; junior class, 21; senior class, 19. Total, 78. First grade, 36, teacher, Miss Jane Lindholm of Jamestown. Second grade, 21, Alice Lindell, Third grade, 18, Margaret Lindquist. Fourth grade, 21, Rachel Springer. Fifth grade, 21, Marie Brown. Sixth grade, 24, Marie Harrington. Seventh grade, 28, Mrs. Anna Thompson. Eighth grade, 26, Jefferson Sears. Total enrollment of grades, 195. Total enrollment, high school, 78. Total enrollment Russell school the importance of comfortable shoes, giving proper support and suggests low and medium heels. Shoes broad enough for a firm stance; and all plant managers want workers to wear closed shoes.

In surveying War Plants, Charm Magazine has found fashion undergoing dynamic and dramatic change—for the 1942 shop lass is "setting" the fashion, and socialites are "copying" her!

273, which is a decrease from last year.

Mrs. C. H. Ver Milyea entertained at a family dinner at her home in honor of the birthday anniversary of her son Victor. Those present besides the honor guest, his wife and two sons of North Warren, were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ver Milyea and son of Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Titchner and son of Russell.

On Thursday afternoon the A. Number One Club meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Beckwith. Besides the members there was one guest, Mrs. R. Huntley. At the business meeting there were several readings by the various members after which dinner was served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. L. A. Putnam at North Warren.

BUTTONS FASTER TO ADORNMENTS

Buttons make fashion magic this Fall.

They give distinction and often-time provide sole trim for the new simple style growing out of wartime restrictions. More like magic is the way they turn last year's discard into this year's smart frock.

Because "change of face" is going to be important this season when dresses look so much alike, smart women will find themselves with two and even three sets of button Orientals to give variety to important costumes in their wardrobe.

Again, some of us are going to find ourselves ingeniously making matching jewelry out of our buttons, earrings and bracelets, rings and necklaces, pins for our hair, our handbags, and our hats.

For their is no scarcity of buttons this season. There is a whole range of smart new types in original designs. Colors are lively, the trend is to large sizes, and there is new ad-at your drug store.

cent on elegance in buttons. Gold metal applique on plastic, wooden or tortoise shell type buttons is one means of creating elegance. This gold trim takes the form of nailheads, eyelets, medallions, or overlay on many of the new B. G. E. Originals.

Tiny white rhinestones studded in crystal or jet type buttons and in colorful transparent plastics create the fashion important sparkle and provide another type of elegance.

Novelties are important for sports fashions, and this season many of the buttons seem to have been designed to have some of the texture and feel of tweeds, plaids, and other woolsens.

Newest whimsies are buttons fashioned like ten pins and bowling balls. Wholly different in appeal are the new Animal Allies buttons in which symbolic animals of our allies are dramatized on colorful disks. The roaring British lion, the elegant Chinese Dragon, the Russian bear and the boxing Australian kangaroo are charming, but most striking is the blue American eagle superimposed on a red and white circle disk.

Some R. A. F. night fighter planes are now covered with coats of lusterless black paint which tends to reduce their visibility in the face of flares or anti-aircraft searchlights.

Distress of Getting Up Nights

Don't let your system fill up with poison your kidneys should eliminate. It often makes you get up nights and may bring serious illness. Thompson's Borsoma Tablets aid in flushing out your kidneys, help strengthen your bladder. They are good for stomach, liver and bowels. Insist up on Thompson's Borsoma Tablets. 50c (adv.)

Fall Opening

WEDNESDAY
September 16

7:30 to 9:30 P. M.
Jordan's Orchestra

You are invited to our Fall Opening, you, your family, and your friends. We look forward to this time when we may have the pleasure of greeting old friends and making new ones. Won't you come and enjoy the evening with us?

It is a different Fall than any in our forty-six years of merchandise experience. Many of the old favorites are gone and new items have taken their places. You will see new plastics take the place of steel, aluminum, and metals, which are so much needed in Defense Work. You will see fashions made according to government regulations, just as lovely and just as becoming as of other years. You will find fashions not only for yourself and your family, but for your home. The government has asked each of us to keep up the morale of our country by dressing ourselves and our homes in the most attractive way we can. Come Wednesday night and see how you can do just that.
